O B I T U A R Y

Andrew Scott Brown "Fly", passed on February 29, 2024, at the age of 37. Born on October 21, 1986, into the loving arms of Brandy Brown and Jami Guidry, he lived a life marked by the quiet dignity of the unassuming and the gentle grace of the pure-hearted.

In his youth, Andrew lived in Benicia where he met Heather Varner and together they had a son, Adam. His son will miss his companionship and fatherly advice. His life, though laced with trials, was a reflection of his fortitude and the love he bore for those around him. Andrew carried within him an innocence too rare in this world, and a compassion that knew no bounds, touching the hearts of all who had the fortune of his company.

Fly was known for his loving heart, genuine warm smiles and affectionate hugs. Even as a baby, his whole face would light up with smiles whenever Brandy held him. He was resilient and had the kindest heart through the worst of times. Always offering to share what little he had with those who had less.

Everywhere Fly went, he ran into friends and asked about their families by name. He really listened and remembered all of the meaningful things about people. Andrew genuinely appreciated those who watched out for him and they did their best to make sure he was taken care of.

He now rests in heaven, preceded in death by his father, Jami Guidry, his grandmother RaeJean Guidry, his grandfather David Guidry, his great grandmother Florence Souza, and great grandfather James Rude. He leaves behind a legacy of love and tenderness in his son, Adam Guidry; his mother, Brandy Brown; his siblings Andrea Stamant, Alexander Brown, Allison Brown-Reyes, and Adelina Reyes, Jessica Guidry, Ash Guidry, alongside his extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, and nephews who will continue to honor his memory.

Andrew is now flying with the angels and in the safe, loving arms of his father. Our hearts were already broken for him before his passing and now just ache for his companionship, smiles and hugs.

Rest in peace Andrew
