- How do you think we as believers have allowed the world's promises of security, stuff, and people, be important to us? Have you been guilty of that? If so, have you also allowed the most important thing to become less?
- Pastor Jeff in his message stated that Jesus was telling the rich man what good thing he needs to be. Reflect for a moment and ask yourself the following questions: What are you saved from? Who are you saved by, and what are you saved to?
- Pastor Jeff shared in his message, that pursuing Jesus doesn't necessarily prevent our life storms from happening. How does the knowledge of that make you feel?
- Ask yourself the following questions: Is there anything that you are putting before God? Is there anything you want with all my heart? Pastor Jeff calls them idols. What do you plan on doing about them in your life?
- Using himself as an example, Pastor Jeff stated that there are many times in his life that he thought that he needed to fall out of love with all of the things and force his heart to love God more. What things do you need to love less so that you can love God more?
