Whether you will be married one day or not, we all will have a season of singleness in our lives. And whether this season of singleness ends when you are in your early 20s or it lasts for your whole life, God has a plan of us. What does scripture say concerning how God wants each of us to use our singleness as God's gift? (ref. 1 Cor. 7:7-9 & 32-35)

A S K

- What about singles who deeply desire marriage? How can they endure seasons of discontentment? (ref. Phil. 4:10-14)
- Pastor Larry in his message stated "Following Jesus doesn't just make your life better. Following Jesus actually makes you better at life." What do we find in scripture and how does it make us better at life? (ref. JHN. 13:34-35, 1 Cor. 13:4-8)
- Pastor Larry also stated, "Kindness is simply loaning someone your strength rather than reminding them of their weakness." How have you attempted to apply that in your life?
- Paul mentions two advantages of singleness. What are they? (ref. 1 Corinthians 7)
- Pastor Larry asked these two important self-reflective questions. What is your go-to response to weakness? What is your go-to response to weakness in other people?
