W A R M - U P

Pastor Larry reminded us that it's natural for us to pay attention to the exterior of our lives. However, in doing that we forget there's only one person who can be attentive to our soul and that is us. Reflecting on your life, try to identify where that has been true concerning you.

A S K

- Read Rom. 12: 2: Reflecting on your life, where have you endeavored not to conform to the pattern of this world and instead became transformed by the renewing of your mind towards God.
- Read Romans 12:1, 2 Timothy 2:15, and 1 Corinthians 6:19-20: How do these scriptures connect concerning making ourselves a living sacrifice to God?
- Pastor Larry in his message stated the framework for our entire Christian life, is that we respond not to God in order to gain something but because God has given us so much. Take a moment and reflect on what God has given you through His Son.
- Read Romans 6:13: Pastor Larry in his message asked us to imagine offering every part of ourselves to God. What parts would you offer God to use for His will, and why?
- Pastor Larry spoke of how if we wanted a healthy soul, we must surrender our will to God. Over the years, how have you formed a habit every single day of surrendering your will to God?
