Pastor Larry reminded us in his message about the saying that “Jesus is the reason for the season”. He then made everyone think when he stated, we are the reason for the season because the birth of Jesus was for our benefit. How does that statement effect your view of Christmas?

A S K

- Pastor Larry reminded us that God uses us to accomplish His works. However, we accomplish it not by our strength or our might, but by God power and by his spirit. Looking back on your life where have you seen God using you to accomplish His works?
- Pastor Larry in his message stated that Jesus was born in weakness because he came for weak people and that our weakness welcomes the power of God. Reflecting on your life where have you seen God manifest in your weakness?
- Pastor Larry again reminds us that God is the promise keeper even in the midst of all the chaos, in the midst of all the turmoil and all the death and the disruption. Where in the midst of your life valleys have you seen God keeping his promise to you?
- Pastor Larry in his message asked “if the arrival of Jesus was a blessing to the world, shouldn't Jesus followers be a blessing to the world as well?” Reflecting on your life, where have you tried to be a blessing to others?
- Pastor Larry asked us if the world is better off because of Jesus, shouldn't our world and our communities be better off because of Jesus followers? Ask yourself, “are you a blessing to your community and are you a light in our world and to the people in your communities? If so, how?”
