- What principles about the kingdom’s radical love can be discerned from Matthew 5:34-48?
- What does it mean that this love makes you “be sons of your Father in heaven” (Greek)? Hint: compare several modern English translations.
- You were God's enemy before you were his friend. How did He treat you when you were his enemy?
- How can you be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect?
- Who are your “enemies” that you might have a hard time loving and praying for? Why?
- What specifically can or should you pray for when it comes to someone who persecutes you?
