How do you determine if someone is of “good character”?

Matthew 18-25

A S K

- What were Joseph’s potential options, as a righteous man, in the context of his culture and Deuteronomy Ch.22? What did his intended plan reveal about his view of God and of the Law?
- How did the message from the angel of the Lord affect his plan? Did this information make it easy for him (or Mary) in the community? Why or why not?
- What examples can you think of where Jesus challenged blind legalism in favor of grace and mercy? Why?
- How do you navigate apparently clear “commands” or instructions found in the New Testament that may conflict with its overarching principals, such as Matthew 22:36-40?
- What are any examples in your life or our culture?
