- What was John the Baptist's primary message? Be specific.
- What is the symbolism of his coming from the desert or wilderness as he confronted his audience?
- Why was he so harsh with some of the people who came to him? What would be a modern equivalent to claiming "we have Abraham as our father" to excuse a life hypocritical to Jesus' teachings?
- How does John's ministry extend to our role in the Church today? What message does our world need to hear? How can you be (or how are you) part of it?
- What do you think John meant by Jesus baptizing with "the Holy Spirit and fire"? How was this prophecy fulfilled, or is to be fulfilled?
